

PROS AND CONS FOR STAYING IN THE PCA

SPEAKER BIOS

Paul Hahn: PCC Interim Pastor

Paul Hahn, a native of Lakeland, FL, is the Interim Pastor at PCC. Paul has planted churches in Austin, TX and Knoxville, TN, and has coached numerous church planters and pastors as a founding partner in Flourish Coaching. Paul was formerly the RUF Campus Minister at Auburn University. Between college and seminary, Paul spent two years on staff with Cru/Athletes in Action and planted the AIA chapter at the University of Florida. Before coming to PCC, Paul served as Coordinator of Mission to North America, the Presbyterian Church in America's agency giving leadership and direction to church planting, church renewal and missional partnerships throughout the U.S. and Canada. Paul has been married to his amazing wife, Fran, for thirty-four years! The Hahns have four grown children and two beautiful granddaughters!

Alex Chung: PCC Member + Elder

Alex Chung has attended PCC since 2004. He has served as a community group leader, Sunday school teacher, usher, and most recently, as an elder of the session.

Shawn Gendall: PCC Pastor of Discipleship

Shawn Gendall was born and raised on the Canadian plains, but – following a few years in Arizona – met and married Kelly, a Los Angeles native. Shawn and Kelly have served in student and family ministries for 18 years, all on the Westside. They are grateful parents to Delaney ('03), Caden ('06), and Peyton ('08). The Gendalls typically spend their free time on the bike paths and in the basketball gyms of this beautiful city. Shawn holds a Master of Divinity from Denver Seminary and is currently completing his Doctor of Ministry in Pastoral Leadership.

Cheryl Baker: PCC Director of Community

Cheryl Baker has taught and served in the church for over 20 years, having previously focused on Discipleship, Leadership Development and Coach Training while on staff at Perimeter Church in Atlanta, Georgia. She has a heart for gospel-minded coaching, having herself been cared for in this way as a new Christian. Cheryl graduated from the school of Transformational Leadership Coaching. She has a great desire to see this type of discipleship multiply in community groups, and sees it as her mission to invest in those who go and do likewise. Cheryl is married to Tom, lives in Playa Del Rey, has six daughters and a smattering of grandchildren. She likes beach walks, friends, reading, learning, and continues to enjoy coaching, mentoring and leading others in her role as Director of Community at Pacific Crossroads.

Kelley Sanford: PCC Member + On Staff at RUF College Ministry

Kelley Sanford is starting her 4th year on staff with Reformed University Fellowship at UCLA (Go Bruins), the official college campus ministry of the PCA and ministry partner of PCC. She moved to LA, began attending Pacific Crossroads Church, and became a member at PCC in the fall of 2018. She also attended PCA churches when she lived in Orlando, FL and was heavily involved in RUF while in college at the University of Central Florida (Go Knights). Finally, she co-lead one of PCC's West LA community groups and has personally found a sweet, Christ-centered home in them as well as other PCC staff and congregants she has been blessed to get close to.

Lloyd Kim: Mission to the World

Lloyd Kim was elected coordinator of Mission to the World (MTW) by the 2015 General Assembly. Lloyd and his wife Eda served as missionaries with MTW beginning in 2004 in the Philippines and then in Cambodia. Lloyd served as MTW's international director of the Asia-Pacific region before his nomination as MTW coordinator in July of 2014. The Kims have three children: Kaelyn, Christian, and Katy. They reside in Lilburn, Georgia.

Jerrard Heard: Pastor, Instructor, Minister-at-Large, Part of Pacific Presbytery

The Rev. Dr. Jerrard Heard lives in the Southbay and has been a part of Pacific Presbytery since 1996 as a pastor, a seminary instructor, and minister-at-large. He has twice served as Moderator of the Presbytery, and has been its Stated Clerk since October of 2016. Pacific Crossroads was his church home from 2006 to 2012, and he has a particular affinity for the body of Christ there and is thankful for their impact on Los Angeles and beyond.

Tom Ramsey: PCC Member + Director of The Gospel Story Ministry

Tom Ramsey is a member of PCC and has attended the church for 8 years. He is a part-time staff member of PCC serving as the Director of The Gospel Story ministry, which seeks to equip and build up disciples through a variety of online courses. Tom volunteers as part of the after-service prayer ministry team at PCC. He has more than 30 years' experience in various PCA churches.

Kathy Lovin: PCC Member + Deacon

Kathy Lovin attended the first meeting of what would become PCC in the founding pastor's living room in July of 1998. She became one of the church's first members and started the Mercy Fund 20 years ago when another member asked the pastor for financial help with their car payment. She later served as a deacon and lead a Hope for LA ministry every Sunday for ten years at a Santa Monica memory care center. Most recently, she served on the Missions Committee helping PCC support their local and overseas ministry partners.

Craig Paddock: PCC Member + Worship Team

Craig Paddock began volunteering as a worship leader in Young Life 20 years ago and has consistently worked in various worship and church planting roles since then for many Presbyterian, non-denominational, and house church gatherings. At PCC, he has enjoyed being a community group leader, partaking in life-on-life groups, and leading worship since becoming a member in 2013. In addition to being part of the broader Los Angeles AA, and ACA recovery communities for the past 8 years, Craig began attending BIPOC and LGBTQIA recovery meetings in early 2020 in an effort to become a better ally both to indigenous people of color and to his peers, friends and family that aren't straight, informing and transforming his understanding of what it looks like to walk alongside and listen to people that don't look and/or identify like himself.
